

TOWN OF BOXFORD POSITION DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Head of Circulation
DEPT.: Library
DATE: December 8, 2025

GENERAL PURPOSE

Responsible for all Circulation and Technical Services operations, and work flow at the Circulation Desk.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED

Works under the supervision of the Library Director.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED

Supervises Library Assistant 1 staff, Circulation Assistants, and volunteers.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In partnership with the Library Director, performs the following functions:

Administration and Personnel:

- Communicates official plans, policies and procedures to staff and general public;
- Develops short and long range library goals and activities; gathers, interprets, and prepares data for studies, reports and recommendations; provides professional advice on circulation and technical services issues to Library Director;
- Manages and supervises circulation and technical services operations; oversees Circulation staff workloads and assignments; trains staff; reviews progress and directs changes as needed.
- Represents the library at professional meetings, workshops, conferences and trainings.

Collection Development and Maintenance:

- Assist Library Director in selection of library materials (including books, periodicals, audiovisual and electronic resources); assists Library Director in approving library purchases; assists Library Director in reviewing library materials which are outdated or not used, and coordinating removal and disposition;
- Performs original cataloging and classification of library materials as needed.

Circulation, Technology and Outreach:

- Supervises Circulation services, prepares work schedules for service desks, works with Library Director to establish circulation policies and procedures, and keeps library staff informed of current circulation policies and procedures.
- Charges, Renews, and discharges circulating library material using Library Consortium Software, issues library cards, resolves circulation issues, interprets and enforces library policies and procedures to the public; trains library staff on integrated library system.
- Responsible for managing all technology services in the library, including consortium services through MVLC; acts as library liaison with outside vendors of equipment, software and maintenance services, including MVLC.

- Assists the Library Director coordinate library services with other agencies, Town departments, and outside organizations such as the school districts, historical society, and various community-based groups.
- Assist in promoting the library through publicity, brochures, and cooperation with various community groups, and public contacts.
- Assists with various special library activities throughout the year, including the adult summer reading program, participation in Town Festivals (Apple Festival, WinterFest), etc.
- Serves as library liaison to Merrimack Valley Library Consortium committees including, Circulation, Technical Services, Collection Development, as appropriate.
- Answers routine reference questions and performs reader's advisory
- Performs or assists subordinates in performing duties, including circulation desk; miscellaneous clerical duties.

Performs other job related duties as assigned.

DESIRED MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Education and Experience:

- a. Masters in Library Science from an accredited graduate program with a professional certificate of librarianship issued by the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners, or ability to obtain certificate within 2 months of hire, and
- b. Minimum of three years progressively responsible library experience with two years supervisory experience.

Necessary Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- a. Must enjoy working with the public;
- b. Thorough knowledge of the principles and practices of modern library systems and programs; thorough knowledge of library collection classification and selection tools and techniques; considerable knowledge of equipment and facilities required in a comprehensive library system; considerable knowledge of community library needs and resources; working knowledge of the principles and practices of office management, work organization and supervision;
- c. Ability to coordinate, analyze and utilize a variety of reports and records; ability to communicate effectively verbally and in writing; ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with patrons, employees, supervisors, and others; ability to accurately classify and catalog library materials
- d. Skill in operation of listed tools and equipment.
- e. Must possess a valid Massachusetts Class D driver's license and have own automobile.
- f. Must be experienced with Microsoft Windows and Microsoft Office Suite, including Outlook. Must be experienced with the Internet and Social Media applications. Experience with WordPress or other web page software also desirable.

TOOLS AND EQUIPMENT USED

Integrated Library System, including circulation and database systems; Multi-line phone system; personal computer and printers; computer server; copy machine; fax machine; calculator; E-Readers; Smart Phones

HOURS

Thirty-five (35) hours per week. Usual working hours will be Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Fridays, 9:00 a.m. to 3 p.m. including one evening per week until 7:00 p.m. and a Saturday rotation. Attendance at occasional meetings held outside of usual working hours, including evenings and weekend days, may be required.

Time spent at such meetings and site visits will count toward meeting a particular week's work hour requirement.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is frequently required to walk, sit, talk and hear. The employee is required to drive a motor vehicle.

Hand-eye coordination is necessary to operate computers and various pieces of office equipment. The employee must have the ability to operate and view a computer screen for extended periods of time. The employee must be able to climb stairs. While performing the duties of this job, the employee is required to sit, stand, walk, climb or balance, stoop, bend, reach, talk, hear, observe and smell. The employee must occasionally lift and/or move up to thirty-five pounds. The employee must be able to push/pull 150 pound book trolley.

Specific vision abilities required by this job include close vision, distance vision, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

The noise level in the work environment is occasionally noisy. The work environment characteristics described here are representative of those that employees encounter while performing the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

All of the systems utilized by the department are confidential and the sole property of the Town of Boxford. All information generated by the office is available to the general public through a request for public documents. The employee will have involvement with confidential data generated by the department and some confidential data generated by other town departments and town counsel, where disclosure of this information may be detrimental to internal and external negotiations.

SELECTION AND GUIDELINES

The following selection guidelines and tests will be required: a formal application, rating of education and experience; oral interview and reference check; and job related tests may be required.

DISCLAIMER

The duties listed above are intended only as illustrations of the various types of work that may be performed. The omission of specific statements of duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related or a logical assignment to the position.

The job description does not constitute an employment agreement between the Boxford Town Library and employee and is subject to change by the Boxford Town Library as the needs of the Library and requirements of the job change.