

Lakewood Borough Employee Handbook, 2024 Edition

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 6 years. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Contents

1. Safety	2
1.1 Review Process	2
1.2 Work Hours	3
1.3 Retirement	4
2. Separation	5
2.1 Probationary Period	6
2.2 Reporting Requirements	6
2.3 Responsibilities	7
3. Employment Basics	8
3.1 Eligibility	8
4. Acknowledgment	9
4.1 Implementation	9
4.2 Timeline	10
5. Welcome	11
5.1 Definitions	11
5.2 Background	11
5.3 Equal Opportunity	12

1. Safety

The borough prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

1.1 Review Process

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

1.2 Work Hours

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. The borough coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Workplace 1	16	51	11
Leave 2	67	84	41
Benefits 3	78	31	21
Compensation 4	21	49	71

1.3 Retirement

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

2. Separation

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

2.1 Probationary Period

Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Draft for Discussion

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

2.1.1 Appeals

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 8 months. Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The borough prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Item	Responsible Party
Performance 1	21
Separation 2	44

2.1.2 Follow-Up Actions

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 10 months. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 7 months.

2.2 Reporting Requirements

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

2.3 Responsibilities

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

3. Employment Basics

The borough coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours.

3.1 Eligibility

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 10 months. The borough prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

3.1.1 Deadlines

Approximately 5 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

4. Acknowledgment

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

4.1 Implementation

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

4.2 Timeline

The borough prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year.

Item	Responsible Party
Safety 1	62
Performance 2	45

5. Welcome

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning.

5.1 Definitions

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

5.2 Background

The borough prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

5.3 Equal Opportunity

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Action Required

Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

5.3.1 Eligibility Date

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 6 months. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.