

Brightbrook Township Employee Handbook, 2026 Edition

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Finance.

Workplace Conduct

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Compensation 1	40	49
Performance 2	20	66

Scope

The township coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Appeals

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 7 months. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Required Forms

Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Work Hours

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Harassment Prevention

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 6 years.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Questions about this material should be directed to the Clerk's Office during regular business hours.

Benefits

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Employment 1	28	82	37
Safety 2	12	39	90
Separation 3	53	36	82

Sick Leave

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 12 months. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Staff Recommendation

The township coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Eligibility

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Draft for Discussion

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office.

Performance Measures

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 11 months. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

1. Questions about this material should be directed to Planning and Zoning during regular business hours.
2. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months.
3. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.
4. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Welcome

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Callout: Where to Get Help

This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Reporting Requirements

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Important Reminder

Approximately 9 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years.

Investigation

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years.

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Approval Authority

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.