

Oakdale City Emergency Operations Plan, 2022 Update

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 5 months.

1. Communications

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

1.1 Eligibility

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 3 months. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Public Works. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year.

1.1.1 Training

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

1.1.2 Required Forms

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Key Takeaway

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

2. Hazard Annexes

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

2.1 Definitions

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

3. Authorities and References

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

3.1 Activation Levels

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 3 years. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

3.2 Purpose

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 9 months. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

1. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.
2. Questions about this material should be directed to Human Resources during regular business hours.
3. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

3.2.1 Record Retention

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Situation 1	39	39	38
Plan 2	13	11	70
Direction 3	70	11	9

3.2.2 Contact Information

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Please Note

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 3 months. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

3.3 Review Process

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

3.3.1 Approval Authority

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 11 years. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Approximately 5 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

- These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.
- The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year.
- The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.
- Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

4. Concept of Operations

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Organization 1	31	60	72
Purpose 2	56	16	88
Administration 3	63	78	2
Communications 4	31	27	52

4.1 Emergency Operations Center

Questions about this material should be directed to Human Resources during regular business hours. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

4. Approximately 6 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.
5. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.
6. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

4.1.1 Performance Measures

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 4 months. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

4.1.2 Severe Weather

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

4.2 Funding Sources

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Parks and Recreation.

4.3 Public Warning

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year.

For Information Only

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 7 months. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

4.3.1 Resource Requests

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year.