

Eastridge County Annual Report to Residents, 2026

The county ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. Crews resurfaced 9 miles of local streets during the construction season. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Awards and Recognition

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Information Technology. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

1. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year.
2. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Implementation

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. The county coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Personnel Costs

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Please Note

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Approval Authority

Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The county ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Economic Development

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Crews resurfaced 3 miles of local streets during the construction season. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Background

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

3. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.
4. The county ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Expenditures

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Crews resurfaced 9 miles of local streets during the construction season.

Key Takeaway

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 5 years. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

Public Safety

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Information Technology. The county coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Exceptions

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Deadline Approaching

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.