

Fairport Village Employee Handbook, 2021 Edition

The village coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

1. Welcome

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 10 months. Approximately 2 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

1.1 Reporting Requirements

The village prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

1.1.1 Investigation

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Finance. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Draft for Discussion

This handbook does not create a contract of employment. The village prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Questions about this material should be directed to Finance during regular business hours.

1.2 Equal Opportunity

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 4 years. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

1. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.
2. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

2. Benefits

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

2.1 Procedures

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 10 months. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

2.2 Funding Sources

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

3. Performance

This handbook does not create a contract of employment. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

3.1 Scope

The village coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

4. Workplace Conduct

Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Deadline Approaching

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 2 months. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 3 years.

4.1 Purpose

The village prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

4.1.1 Approval Authority

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 10 months. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Staff Comment

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

5. Employment Basics

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Human Resources. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year. The village prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Safety 1	6	47	58
Acknowledgment 2	80	33	2

5.1 Responsibilities

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

- Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.
- Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.
- Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours.
- This handbook does not create a contract of employment.