Acknowledgment

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Staff Comment

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 12 months.

Procedures

Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 2 months. The city prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Cost Estimates

The city prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Retirement

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Action Required

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Questions about this material should be directed to the Clerk's Office during regular business hours.

Payout on Separation

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 12 years. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Workplace Conduct

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Exceptions

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities.
