

Northton Town Emergency Operations Plan, 2022 Update

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Organization and Responsibilities

The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 9 months. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Hazard 1	42	82
Administration 2	10	57
Situation 3	11	55
Purpose 4	60	89

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Finance. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Responsibilities

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Notice Requirements

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year.

Approximately 12 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Summary Box

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Scope

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Questions about this material should be directed to Finance during regular business hours.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 4 months. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Training

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 7 years.

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Deadline Approaching

Approximately 8 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Flooding

Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

Direction and Control

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Action Required

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year.

Procedures

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Staff Recommendation

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Record Retention

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Hazard Analysis

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 3 months. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 9 months.

- Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Finance.
- Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.
- The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.
- An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Approval Authority

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 3 years. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years. Approximately 6 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

1. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.
2. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Coordination With Other Agencies

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Authorities and References

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 5 months.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Communications 1	7	2	83
Hazard 2	67	38	12
Situation 3	81	84	90

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Direction 4	71	44	88

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Evacuation

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 6 months.

Exceptions

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Reporting Requirements

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Concept of Operations

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Purpose

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Plan Maintenance

Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Plan 1	77	76
Organization 2	58	9
Concept 3	86	73
Administration 4	21	20

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours.

Mutual Aid

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 12 months. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Definitions

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Eligibility

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2022 fiscal year. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Purpose 1	27	75	69
Communications 2	40	49	42
Authorities 3	5	85	63

Follow-Up Actions

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 5 months. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Staff Comment

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The town may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

After-Action Review

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 7 years.

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Approximately 11 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Note to the Reader

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office.