

Ordinance No. 2024-91: Amending the Westwood Town Municipal Code

The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 4 years.

1. Severability

No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Human Resources. Approximately 4 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

1.1 Funding Sources

If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Summary Box

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the town.

1.1.1 Deadlines

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare.

1.1.2 Cure Period

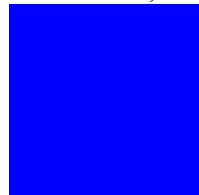

This ordinance takes effect 11 days after its final passage and publication. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Deadline Approaching

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Questions about this material should be directed to the Clerk's Office during regular business hours. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

1.2 Eligibility

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare. If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect.

Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the town. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

1.3 Scope

This ordinance takes effect 8 days after its final passage and publication. No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit.

- The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required.
- Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the town.
- Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Public Works.

1.3.1 Approval Authority

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect.

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year.

1.3.2 Appeals

The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit.

2. Findings

Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the town. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

2.1 Reporting Requirements

No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit. This ordinance takes effect 3 days after its final passage and publication.

2.1.1 Hearing Procedure

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years.

For Information Only

This ordinance takes effect 9 days after its final passage and publication. Questions about this material should be directed to Information Technology during regular business hours. The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare.

2.2 Coordination With Other Agencies

Approximately 8 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required.

3. General Provisions

The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required. If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect.

3.1 Background

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

3.2 Notice of Violation

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

3.3 Timeline

The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare. No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit.

3.3.1 Follow-Up Actions

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. This ordinance takes effect 4 days after its final passage and publication.

Action Required

Approximately 2 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the town. Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours.

3.3.2 Staff Assignments

The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required. The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required.

This ordinance takes effect 2 days after its final passage and publication. If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect.