

Northport Town Annual Report to Residents, 2024

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

1. Awards and Recognition

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Information Technology.

Staff Recommendation

The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 4 years. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

1.1 Police Department

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

1.1.1 Deadlines

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

1.1.2 Calls for Service

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

1.2 Revenues

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Approximately 9 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Questions about this material should be directed to Information Technology during regular business hours. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

1.3 Fund Balance

Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season. Crews resurfaced 4 miles of local streets during the construction season. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

2. Financial Summary

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

Key Takeaway

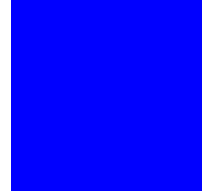

Approximately 4 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Questions about this material should be directed to the Clerk's Office during regular business hours.

2.1 Expenditures

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Crews resurfaced 2 miles of local streets during the construction season.

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season.

3. Message From the Administrator

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

Please Note

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

3.1 Review Process

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

3.2 Implementation

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 4 years.

- Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.
- We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.
- The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.
- Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

4. Public Safety

The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

4.1 Scope

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

5. Infrastructure

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 4 years. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Important Reminder

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Questions about this material should be directed to Human Resources during regular business hours.

5.1 Funding Sources

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

5.2 Definitions

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

5.2.1 Property Tax

Crews resurfaced 11 miles of local streets during the construction season. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

6. Looking Ahead

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

6.1 Coordination With Other Agencies

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Item	Responsible Party
Year 1	50
Parks 2	47
Economic 3	62
Directory 4	34

6.1.1 Documentation

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Draft for Discussion

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

6.2 Recreation Programs

Approximately 8 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Questions about this material should be directed to Planning and Zoning during regular business hours. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

6.2.1 Training

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 3 years. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

6.2.2 Performance Measures

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

6.3 Procedures

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2024 fiscal year.