

Ordinance No. 2021-112: Amending the Cedarmont County Municipal Code

This ordinance takes effect 11 days after its final passage and publication. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

1. Findings

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

1.1 Exceptions

No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

1.1.1 Staff Assignments

If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect.

Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit.

Please Note

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

1.2 Procedures

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required.

Item	Responsible Party
General 1	44
Permits 2	70
Definitions 3	4
Enforcement 4	37

1.2.1 Training

Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours.

The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare.

1.2.2 Deadlines

Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the county. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Public Works.

If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year. The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required.

Action Required

The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare. The county coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

1.3 Coordination With Other Agencies

This ordinance takes effect 2 days after its final passage and publication. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Draft for Discussion

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the county. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year.

1.3.1 Follow-Up Actions

The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare. Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the county.

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Finance. The county coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

2. Penalties

The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required. This ordinance takes effect 9 days after its final passage and publication.

For Information Only

If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect. Questions about this material should be directed to Human Resources during regular business hours.

2.1 Reporting Requirements

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare.

2.1.1 First Offense

This ordinance takes effect 11 days after its final passage and publication. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the county. No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit. Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

3. Repealer

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Important Reminder

The code official may issue a notice of violation describing the corrective action required. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years.

3.1 Application Contents

No person shall undertake the regulated activity without first obtaining a permit. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect.

Deadline Approaching

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

4. Effective Date

If any provision of this ordinance is held invalid, the remaining provisions remain in effect. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

4.1 Applicability

The county coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the county. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Summary Box

Questions about this material should be directed to Information Technology during regular business hours. The governing body finds that these amendments serve the public health, safety and welfare.

4.2 Funding Sources

Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. This ordinance takes effect 12 days after its final passage and publication. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year.

4.3 Responsibilities

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.