

SMS Texting Terms and Conditions and Privacy Summary

Dakota County Technical College / Inver Hills Community College (DCTC/Inver Hills)

By consenting to receive text messages from DCTC or Inver Hills, you agree to these Text Messaging Terms and Conditions, as well as our Policy 2.11: Text Messaging.

Consent/Opt-In

Consent is required to receive communications via text messaging except for emergency communications.

How consent is given can vary based on the type of message:

- Conversational Messages – If the individual initiates the text message exchange and the College only responds to the individual with relevant information, then no verbal or written permission is expected (implied consent is given). If the message is initiated by the College, the individual must give their prior consent to be contacted via text message. Individuals may give permission over text, email, on a form, on a website, or verbally.
- Informational Messages – Individuals must give express permission before the College sends them a text message. Individuals may give permission over text, email, on a form, on a website, or verbally. Consent must be clear and only applies for the purpose stated in the call to action.
- Promotional Messages - Individuals must give express permission before the College sends them a text message. Individuals may give permission over text, email, on a form, on a website, or verbally. Consent must be clear and only applies for the purpose stated in the call to action.
- Emergency Messages – In situations involving the health and safety of the College community, the College may send automated texts to mobile phone numbers without prior consent.

The College's non-emergency text messages must, at a minimum, comply with the following:

- Be sent only to those individuals who have opted-in.
- Comply with applicable laws and regulations to reduce institutional risk.
- Follow the College's best practices for communications.

- Allow subscribers to opt-out of receiving non-emergency messages at any time.
- Communicate that data and text messaging rates may apply.
- Communicate an opt-out keyword (e.g., STOP) to opt-out of further messages.
- For HELP, e-mail dctc-inver-admissions@minnstate.edu

Privacy Policy

We do not share, sell, or provide your mobile phone number or messaging consent data to third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. Student mobile telephone numbers are considered limited directory data and may only be used for purposes outlined in this policy and the College's Student Data Practices Policy 2.7 - DCTC and Procedure 2.7.1 - DCTC; Policy 2.7 Student Data Practices - Inver Hills Community College and Procedure 2.7.1 Student Data Practice - Inver Hills Community College.

The College will not share personal data, including text opt-in or consent status, with third parties that help provide messaging services, including but not limited to platform providers, phone companies, and any other vendors who assist in the delivery of text messages.
