

Stoneridge City Employee Handbook, 2019 Edition

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Benefits

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Health Insurance

Questions about this material should be directed to Planning and Zoning during regular business hours. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Reporting a Concern

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 10 months. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 12 years.

Equal Opportunity

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Item	Responsible Party
Employment 1	35
Performance 2	68

Welcome

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Item	Responsible Party
Workplace 1	62
Compensation 2	22
Separation 3	41
Leave 4	71

Implementation

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 11 months. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Staff Comment

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2019 fiscal year. The city prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Accrual Rates

Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. The city prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 9 months.

Work Hours

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Public Comment

Approximately 6 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Information Technology. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Funding Sources

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Follow-Up Actions

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The city prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Questions about this material should be directed to Planning and Zoning during regular business hours. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Important Reminder

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Deadlines

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. The city prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Safety

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2019 fiscal year. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Procedures

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.