

Cedarview City Emergency Operations Plan, 2021 Update

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Contents

Authorities and References	2
Evacuation	2
Definitions	2
Communications	3
Scope	4
Hazard Analysis	4
Organization and Responsibilities	5
Coordination With Other Agencies	6
Funding Sources	7
Situation and Assumptions	8
Activation Levels	9
Procedures	10
Administration and Logistics	11
Review Process	11
Background	12
Emergency Operations Center	13

Authorities and References

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Approximately 9 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Evacuation

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours.

Staff Recommendation

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year.

Definitions

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 11 months. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Action Required

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 9 months.

Communications

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Scope

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Staff Comment

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Hazard Analysis

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours.

Training

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 6 years. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 7 months.

Callout: Where to Get Help

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Organization and Responsibilities

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Note to the Reader

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year. Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Coordination With Other Agencies

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Parks and Recreation. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Direction 1	39	11
Plan 2	73	41
Concept 3	63	73

Funding Sources

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Situation and Assumptions

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

1. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.
2. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.
3. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Activation Levels

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 8 months. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 12 months.

Notice Requirements

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 11 years. Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours.

After-Action Review

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Summary Box

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Procedures

Approximately 4 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Parks and Recreation.

Administration and Logistics

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Review Process

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

For Information Only

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Appeals

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Background

Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 8 months. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

Item	Responsible Party
Hazard 1	88
Purpose 2	4

Contact Information

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities.

Emergency Operations Center

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2021 fiscal year. Approximately 4 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Note to the Reader

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.