

Fairford City Annual Report to Residents, 2025

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Public Works.

Directory

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Responsibilities

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

Summary Box

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Public Safety

The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

For Information Only

Approximately 8 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Crews resurfaced 6 miles of local streets during the construction season.

Recreation Programs

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

Timeline

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Questions about this material should be directed to Finance during regular business hours. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Cost Estimates

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2025 fiscal year. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 10 years.

Item	Responsible Party
Awards 1	76
Year 2	67
Infrastructure 3	42

Performance Measures

Crews resurfaced 12 miles of local streets during the construction season. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

- Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.
- This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Economic Development

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Implementation

Crews resurfaced 11 miles of local streets during the construction season. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2025 fiscal year. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

Review Process

Crews resurfaced 9 miles of local streets during the construction season. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Financial 1	87	59	30
Looking 2	74	73	28
Parks 3	31	4	29
Awards 4	59	42	47

Intergovernmental Revenue

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Human Resources. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Purpose

Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Public Comment

The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

1. Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.
2. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.
3. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

Message From the Administrator

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Coordination With Other Agencies

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Parks and Community Services

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years.

Fund Balance

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Funding Sources

The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.