

Fairwood City Emergency Operations Plan, 2020 Update

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Direction and Control

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 12 months.

Responsibilities

Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 4 months. Approximately 5 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Mutual Aid

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2020 fiscal year.

Concept of Operations

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities.

Purpose

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Callout: Where to Get Help

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years.

Contact Information

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

1. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.
2. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.
3. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.
4. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Scope

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Hazard Annexes

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media.

- Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities.
- Questions about this material should be directed to Information Technology during regular business hours.

- Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 8 months.
- Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Procedures

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Damage Assessment

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

5. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 9 months.
6. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Record Retention

The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 5 years. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Approval Authority

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Public Warning

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2020 fiscal year. Approximately 8 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

An after-action review is conducted following every activation. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Situation and Assumptions

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Evacuation

Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours. An after-action review is conducted following every activation. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Funding Sources

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 6 months.

Item	Responsible Party
Plan 1	87
Administration 2	66
Purpose 3	9

Training

Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 6 years.

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

For Information Only

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Notification Procedures

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 9 months. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant.

Review Process

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2020 fiscal year.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Authorities 1	51	45
Organization 2	9	14
Organization 3	81	81
Purpose 4	89	51

Communications

The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Human Resources.

Deadline Approaching

Public warnings are issued through sirens, text alerts and local media. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. The city may request mutual aid when local resources are exhausted.

Emergency Operations Center

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

Draft for Discussion

Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours. Shelters are opened in coordination with volunteer relief organizations.

Reporting Requirements

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. An after-action review is conducted following every activation.

Staff Recommendation

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. The emergency management coordinator activates this plan when conditions warrant. Department heads maintain call lists and review them at least every 8 months.