

Stoneford City Administrative Policy Manual, Revised 2026

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

1. Public Communications

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time.

1.1 Allowable Expenses

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year.

1.2 Timeline

Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years. Receipts must be submitted within 5 days of the expense.

- Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Parks and Recreation.
- Receipts must be submitted within 8 days of the expense.

1.2.1 Public Comment

Questions about this material should be directed to the Clerk's Office during regular business hours.

Employees must obtain supervisor approval before incurring any reimbursable expense.

Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

2. Policy Statement

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Approximately 9 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda.

For Information Only

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy.

2.1 Data Security

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time.

2.2 Media Inquiries

Employees must obtain supervisor approval before incurring any reimbursable expense. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Employees must obtain supervisor approval before incurring any reimbursable expense.

3. Vehicle Use

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Finance.

Staff Recommendation

This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Receipts must be submitted within 11 days of the expense.

3.1 Prohibited Uses

Employees must obtain supervisor approval before incurring any reimbursable expense. Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy. Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours.

Note to the Reader

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.1.1 Contact Information

This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Approximately 4 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy. Receipts must be submitted within 5 days of the expense.

3.1.2 Record Retention

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 8 years. Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Records 1	73	25
Grant 2	73	5
Purchasing 3	25	65

3.2 Approval Levels

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

4. Policy Review

Employees must obtain supervisor approval before incurring any reimbursable expense. Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

4.1 Retention Schedule

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

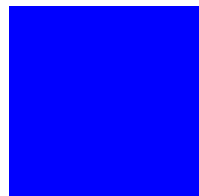

1. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.
2. Receipts must be submitted within 10 days of the expense.

5. Travel and Expenses

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Receipts must be submitted within 4 days of the expense.

Deadline Approaching

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 5 years. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2026 fiscal year.

5.1 Review Process

Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time. Approximately 2 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Please Note

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

5.1.1 Follow-Up Actions

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Use 1	67	10	65
Purchasing 2	50	39	8
Policy 3	4	26	27
Vehicle 4	29	2	46

5.1.2 Deadlines

Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Questions about this material should be directed to Planning and Zoning during regular business hours. Employees must obtain supervisor approval before incurring any reimbursable expense.

6. Authority

Receipts must be submitted within 4 days of the expense. Receipts must be submitted within 2 days of the expense.

6.1 Definitions

Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Key Takeaway

Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

6.1.1 Performance Measures

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Department heads are responsible for ensuring their staff understand this policy.

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 3 years. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

6.1.2 Personal Devices

Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time. This policy supersedes all prior versions and related memoranda. Devices issued by the city remain its property and may be inspected at any time.