

Elmdale Township Employee Handbook, 2019 Edition

The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Employment Basics

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Summary Box

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

Work Hours

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Training

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. The township coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

Safety

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Equal Opportunity

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2019 fiscal year. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind.

Record Retention

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 11 months.

Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Coordination With Other Agencies

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 7 years.

Follow-Up Actions

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Questions about this material should be directed to Finance during regular business hours. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2019 fiscal year. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Payout on Separation

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Benefits

Approximately 9 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Staff Comment

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 9 months. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Purpose

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

For Information Only

The township coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years.

Sick Leave

The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 6 months. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Workplace Conduct

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Utilities. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Funding Sources

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Carryover

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Information Technology.

Deadline Approaching

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Appeals

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours.

Note to the Reader

The township coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 6 months. This handbook does not create a contract of employment.

Timeline

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Staff Recommendation

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Deadlines

The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Key Takeaway

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Contact Information

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2019 fiscal year. Approximately 12 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Performance

This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately.

Definitions

Employees should report workplace injuries to their supervisor immediately. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

Callout: Where to Get Help

The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years.

Accrual Rates

Questions about this material should be directed to Planning and Zoning during regular business hours. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Compensation 1	52	81	79
Separation 2	45	76	2
Leave 3	4	81	73

Required Forms

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Probationary Period

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Harassment Prevention

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 8 months. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

Action Required

The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2019 fiscal year.

Welcome

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Procedures

The township coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.

Investigation

This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months. Questions about this material should be directed to Finance during regular business hours.

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 3 months. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 11 years.

Item	Responsible Party
Acknowledgment 1	67
Safety 2	57
Leave 3	45
Employment 4	8

Reporting Requirements

The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Eligibility Date

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. This handbook does not create a contract of employment. Full-time employees accrue leave beginning on their first day of employment.

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Human Resources. Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Please Note

Performance evaluations are completed at least once every 9 months. The township prohibits discrimination and harassment of any kind. Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor.