

Oakdale City Annual Report to Residents, 2023

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

1. Awards and Recognition

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Approximately 6 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

Action Required

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

1.1 Police Department

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Summary Box

Crews resurfaced 8 miles of local streets during the construction season. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

1.1.1 Cost Estimates

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

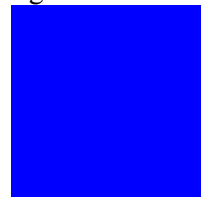

1.1.2 Record Retention

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

1.2 Review Process

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 2 years.

Questions about this material should be directed to Public Works during regular business hours. The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

1.2.1 Public Comment

Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2023 fiscal year. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Sidebar: Frequently Asked Question

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

2. Looking Ahead

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Crews resurfaced 2 miles of local streets during the construction season. Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours.

2.1 Procedures

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

2.2 Timeline

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Approximately 3 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis.

Important Reminder

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2023 fiscal year. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

2.3 New Businesses

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Note to the Reader

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

3. Message From the Administrator

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Financial 1	26	47	90
Infrastructure 2	67	29	19
Parks 3	26	83	66
Economic 4	44	39	54

3.1 Fund Balance

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

4. Year in Review

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Crews resurfaced 9 miles of local streets during the construction season. Questions about this material should be directed to Finance during regular business hours.

4.1 Responsibilities

This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Crews resurfaced 7 miles of local streets during the construction season. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

Staff Comment

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2023 fiscal year. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

4.1.1 Performance Measures

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

4.1.2 Intergovernmental Revenue

Crews resurfaced 12 miles of local streets during the construction season. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

Item	Responsible Party
Awards 1	32
Year 2	60

4.2 Expenditures

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file.

Callout: Where to Get Help

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Planning and Zoning. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

4.2.1 Notice Requirements

Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 3 years. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

4.3 Reporting Requirements

Approximately 7 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

Deadline Approaching

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

4.3.1 Approval Authority

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency.

4.3.2 Deadlines

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Questions about this material should be directed to Human Resources during regular business hours.

5. Public Safety

Crews resurfaced 9 miles of local streets during the construction season. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Summary Box

Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 9 years.

5.1 Exceptions

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

Staff Comment

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2023 fiscal year. Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day.

6. Directory

Approximately 12 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Directory 1	87	52
Economic 2	69	4
Parks 3	35	67
Infrastructure 4	80	52

6.1 Revenues

Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.

1. Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season.
2. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.
3. The city ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance.
4. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

6.1.1 Personnel Costs

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received.

The city coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise. Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount	Status
Looking 1	49	89	68
Financial 2	82	41	23
Public 3	49	80	9
Message 4	73	7	34