

Eastport Town Annual Report to Residents, 2025

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

Contents

1. Infrastructure	2
1.1 Review Process	3
1.2 New Businesses	3
1.3 Responsibilities	3
2. Economic Development	4
2.1 Procedures	4
2.2 Fire and Rescue	5
2.3 Recreation Programs	5
3. Looking Ahead	6
3.1 Background	7

1. Infrastructure

Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

1.1 Review Process

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

1.1.1 Property Tax

The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from Information Technology.

Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Approximately 5 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor.

1.1.2 Documentation

Questions about this material should be directed to Utilities during regular business hours. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support.

Summary Box

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed.

1.2 New Businesses

The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2025 fiscal year. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 4 years.

Note to the Reader

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Crews resurfaced 4 miles of local streets during the construction season.

1.2.1 Training

The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. The town ended the year with a balanced budget and a stable fund balance. The following provisions were updated to reflect current state requirements.

1.2.2 Calls for Service

Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year. Records supporting these figures are retained for at least 10 years.

We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Staff Comment

Where a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, it moves to the next business day. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.

1.3 Responsibilities

Staff will review these provisions annually and recommend changes where needed. Approximately 10 percent of the work described here was completed on schedule.

1.3.1 Response Times

Questions about this material should be directed to Parks and Recreation during regular business hours. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the governing body to act in an emergency. Crews resurfaced 8 miles of local streets during the construction season.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Parks 1	9	23
Year 2	28	24

2. Economic Development

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. Exceptions require written approval and must be documented in the project file. Residents may request copies of the supporting documents from the Clerk's Office.

2.1 Procedures

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Crews resurfaced 5 miles of local streets during the construction season.

2.2 Fire and Rescue

Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. We thank residents, volunteers and staff for their continued support. Recreation programs served more residents than in any prior year.

2.3 Recreation Programs

Each responsible department reports progress to the administrator on a quarterly basis. Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards.

3. Looking Ahead

Emergency response times remained within the adopted service standards. The information below reflects conditions as of the end of the 2025 fiscal year. This section applies to all departments unless a later provision states otherwise.

Item	Responsible Party	Amount
Directory 1	79	47
Message 2	28	52
Financial 3	2	41

3.1 Background

These amounts are estimates and may change as final invoices are received. Several new businesses opened along the downtown corridor. The town coordinates this work with neighboring jurisdictions when practical.