OVERVIEW

Campus safety is an important consideration for any college community. To enhance campus safety, Rend Lake College provides an Annual Security Report to current and prospective students and employees. The information in this report can help empower members of the campus community. Students and employees can take advantage of campus resources and can make decisions that positively impact individuals as well as community safety.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Rend Lake College Police Department's mission is to promote a safe and secure environment for all students, employees and visitors by providing visible, professional and courteous service, information and assistance to the campus community.

SUMMARY OF THE JEANNE CLERY ACT

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC 1092 (f)) is a federal law passed in 1990 as an amendment to the Higher Education Act of 1965, otherwise known as the Clery Act. The act mandates that all colleges and universities that receive federal financial assistance must disclose certain timely and annual information concerning campus crime and safety. Each year the updated report must be distributed to current students and employees. Prospective students and employees must also be made aware of the availability of the report.

One of the best explanations of this federal law comes from The Handbook for Campus Crime Reporting (U.S. Department of Education, Office of Postsecondary Education, Washington, D.C., 2009).

In 1990, Congress enacted the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act (Title II of Public Law 101–542), which amended the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA). This act required all postsecondary institutions participating in Title IV student financial aid programs to disclose campus crime statistics and security information. The act was amended in 1992, 1998 and 2000. The 1998 amendments renamed the law the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act in memory of a student who was slain in her dorm room in 1986.

The Clery Act requires higher education institutions to give timely warnings of crimes that represent a threat to the safety of students or employees and to make public their campus security policies. It also requires that crime data is collected, reported and disseminated to the campus community and are also submitted to the United States Department of Education. The act is intended to provide students and their families, as higher education consumers, with accurate, complete and timely information about safety on campus so that they can make informed decisions.

13 - DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE AND INSTITUTIONAL SANCTIONS FOR DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT AND STALKING

Rend Lake College prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking as those terms are defined for the purpose of the Clery Act. This is for all property owned or controlled by the college. The Rend Lake College Police Department has jurisdiction of all property owned or controlled by the college.

The College Police Department, Campus Security Authorities and college administrators, including Title IX coordinators, will take reports of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. All reports taken by Campus Security Authorities and College Administrators will be forwarded to the College Police Department for investigation. All reports of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking received by the College Police Department will be taken seriously and investigated fully, and will be evaluated to determine if they fall under Title IX. Filing a police report with the College Police Department will not obligate the victim to prosecute nor shall it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from employees. The confidentiality of the victim and other parties will be protected. Personal identifiers will not be used in public records. Confidentiality of the victim will not impair the ability of the victim’s protection.

If an individual is a victim of a sexual assault at the college, the first priority should be to get to a place of safety and report the crime to the College Police Department. Necessary medical treatment should be obtained immediately. The College Police Department will inform the victim of the options regarding prosecution with campus, local and state authorities. The College Police Department also work closely with the organizations Sexual Assault and Family Emergency (S.A.F.E.) and Survivor Empowerment Center to provide confidential counseling, 24-hour crisis intervention and support.

The college will use the reporting, investigation, and disciplinary processes outlined in Rend Lake College Policy 2.1200 – Addressing Discrimination and Harassment (to Include Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking). This policy is available in full at www.rlc.edu/titleix-policy. Investigation and proceedings will be prompt, fair, and impartial from investigation through resolution. Any matters and hearings concerning all alleged cases of sexual assault will employ “preponderance of the evidence” as the standard of proof.

Rend Lake College has adopted grievance procedures that provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of complaints made by students, employees, or other individuals who are participating or attempting to participate in its education program or activity, or by the Title IX Coordinator, alleging any action that would be prohibited by Title IX or the Title IX regulations.

A complainant may file a complaint via the electronic form at www.rlc.edu/titleix-policy, or in person, by email, or by regular mail at the office of the Title IX Coordinator. The formal resolution process will include a thorough, impartial investigation by a trained Title IX investigator resulting in a determination by a decision-maker of the respondent's responsibility. The respondent is presumed to be not responsible, and the preponderance of evidence standard will be used. If both parties request a live hearing and the college determines it is a necessary option, a live hearing may be conducted. The live hearing will be conducted by a disciplinary committee formed by the college President and chaired by the appropriate Vice President or other designee of the President. The decision-maker must issue a written determination regarding responsibility.

For violations of this section which are not under Title IX, the same procedures will be followed. In either case, informal resolution methods will not be used in instances in which sexual misconduct that constitutes sexual assault or sexual violence, or conduct constituting dating violence, domestic violence or stalking, is alleged.

Both the complainant and the respondent are afforded the same opportunity to be accompanied by one advisor in any meeting or proceeding if so desired. The advisor may attend the disciplinary hearing to counsel the student. In no event may the advisor participate directly, by speaking or questioning either party. At any time during the disciplinary hearing, the advisor may be asked to leave should they not adhere to their role in an advisory capacity only. If either the complainant or the respondent do not attend the scheduled hearing it may still be conducted in absentia and the verdict rendered regardless of their attendance or participation in the disciplinary hearing. The decision-maker shall set forth the sanctions at the end of a disciplinary proceeding. Imposed sanctions can include:

- Dismissal of charges
- Oral reprimand of the accused
- Censure stating further misconduct by the accused will bring additional sanctions
- Disciplinary probation of the accused
- Community service of the accused
- College-imposed order of protection limiting the accused's contact with the victim
- Restitution by the accused to the victim
- Suspension of the accused
- Expulsion of the respondent
- Referral for charges within the state of Illinois criminal justice system

Both the complainant and the respondent will be informed in the same time frame and in the same manner of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that brought an alleged sexual offense.

In Title IX cases, the college offers both parties an appeal from a determination regarding responsibility, and from dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein, on the following bases: procedural irregularity that would change the outcome of the matter; new evidence that would change the outcome and was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made; and the Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decision-maker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter. Notice of appeal must be filed within 14 days of the written determination.

In non-Title IX cases, the complainant and the respondent each have the right to appeal the Vice President's decision within 14 days of the written decision from the formal investigation. This appeal may be based on either substantive or procedural grounds. The appeal must be submitted in writing with all supporting materials attached. The College President can unilaterally determine that sufficient evidence exists in cases of sexual assault to pursue charges with the State of Illinois (with the victim's consent) and direct the Chief of Police to forward the case to the Jefferson County States Attorney. The College President can also determine if sufficient evidence exists for expulsion.

14 - BYSTANDER INTERVENTION

In instances of sexual assault, a bystander may be able to intervene and prevent harm to others. A bystander should notice and recognize the event as a risky situation, take responsibility for helping the situation, ask for assistance from other bystanders, call 911, record any details as soon as possible and intervene in a safe and sensitive manner.

15 - AWARENESS AND TRAINING

The college will take measures to periodically educate and train the campus community on awareness and prevention of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence and stalking. The college utilizes an email campaign each semester as the primary prevention method. Informational flyers are placed in common student and staff areas. Online training is also used. Domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence and stalking prevention information is provided to students at new student orientation. Awareness and prevention presentations will be given to student organizations, clubs, groups and athletic teams.

Verbiage has been added to the template for all college syllabi stating that sexual assault is not tolerated on campus and contact information to report possible violations.

Compliance

Compliance with these provisions does not constitute a violation of Section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly known as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

16 – DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, STALKING, EDUCATION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMS

Throughout the academic year, various departments on campus, along with S.A.F.E., provide additional sexual assault prevention education and awareness programs.

17 – WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, STALKING OR SEXUAL ASSAULT

If you are a victim of a dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking at Rend Lake College, your first priority should be to get to a place of safety. You should then obtain necessary medical treatment by going to the nearest emergency room or calling 911. The Rend Lake College Police Department strongly advocates that a victim of an assault report the incident in a timely manner. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. An assault should be reported directly to a Rend Lake College Police Department Officer. Contact the Rend Lake College Police Department either in-person or by the following phone numbers: Campus Police Department Cell Phone at (618) 525-1911 or office telephone at (618) 437-5321, Ext. 1911. Filing a police report with the Rend Lake College Police Department will not obligate the victim to prosecute nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from officers. Filing a police report will:

- Ensure that a victim of sexual assault receives the necessary medical treatment and tests at no expense to the victim;
- Provide the opportunity for collection of evidence helpful in prosecution which cannot be obtained later (ideally a victim of sexual assault should not wash, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing prior to a medical exam);
- Ensure the victim has access to free confidential counseling from counselors specifically trained in the area of sexual assault crisis intervention. The Rend Lake College Police Department works with S.A.F.E. and can assist victims of sexual assault in contacting a counselor.
- When a student or employee reports to the institution that the student or employee has been a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the institution will provide the student or employee with a written explanation of the student's or employee's rights and options.

18 – STUDENT'S OPTION TO NOTIFY APPROPRIATE LAW ENFORCEMENT AFTER A SEXUAL ASSAULT

Victims of sexual assault are not required to file a police report or to pursue charges with either the state or the college. However, prompt and accurate reporting of sexual assault allows for the gathering of evidence and information needed in prosecution and may also prevent another assault.

When a case of sexual assault is reported to Rend Lake College Campus Security Authorities, they will inform the victim of the option to notify the Rend Lake College Police Department, the option to pursue criminal charges with the State of Illinois or to pursue action within the Rend Lake College Office of Student Services based on violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The Rend Lake College Police Department can be contacted at the Campus Police Department Cell Phone at (618) 525-1911 or office telephone at (618) 437-5321, Ext. 1911.

The police report process involves the victim providing verbal and written statements to police concerning the assault. The officer will ask detailed questions concerning the incident to gather all needed information concerning the assault. The officer will then ask the victim to provide a written statement concerning the incident and the officer will write a written report based on the interview with the victim. This process is often difficult for the victim but necessary if the victim wishes to pursue prosecution.

Rend Lake College will always comply with a student's request for assistance and help them notify the appropriate law enforcement authorities in the case of sexual assault.

19 – INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS CONCERNING COUNSELING AND OTHER SERVICES AVAILABLE TO THE VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

Rend Lake College does not employ any professionally licensed or certified counselors to provide any counseling services to victims of sexual assault. However, Rend Lake College partners with the Sexual Assault and Family Emergency (S.A.F.E.) organization. S.A.F.E. is a nonprofit agency which provides confidential counseling, crisis intervention, support, education and training. S.A.F.E. also provides free confidential counseling to victims of sexual assault. More information on S.A.F.E. can be found at <http://safecrisiscenter.org/> or via their 24-hour Crisis Hotline at 1-800-625-1414.

All of S.A.F.E.'s services are free of charge and confidential in nature.

20 – SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIM OPTIONS FOR STATUS CHANGES

The Rend Lake College Police Department, in cooperation with the Office of Student Services, will notify the victim of alleged sexual assault that the college will change the victim's academic situation at the victim's request after the alleged assault. These academic changes will only be made at the victim's request and only if the requested changes are reasonably available.

These changes could include changing classes from one section to another due to victim/offender attending the same class section. If needed, the Rend Lake College Police Department will give escort service to all victims.

21– SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act requires colleges and universities to inform students and employees how to learn the identity of registered sex offenders on campus. This law also requires that sex offenders provide notice of their status as a sex offender to any institution of higher education if they are enrolled as a student or are an employee of the institution.

The Illinois State Police maintain the Sex Offender Registry, which is a database of all registered sex offenders in Illinois. Anyone can access the database on the Illinois State Police website: <http://www.isp.state.il.us/sor/>. You can learn the identity of registered sex offenders on or near campus, or anywhere in Illinois, at the Illinois State Police Registry website or by contacting the Rend Lake College Police Department Chief of Police.
